REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

An Enthusiastic Gathering—
Strong Ticket Nominated.

Mrs. Martin Takes Her Defeat Very Hard and Threatens to Run Independent.

The convention of Republicans to nominate a county ticket, which met in Healdsburg last Monday, was a most harmonious gathering of enthusiastic and representative Republicans of Sonoma county.

Nothing occurred to mar the proceedings if we except the hissing that was indulged in by a few foolish and over-zealous partisans of Mrs. F. McG. Martin when the chairman of the convention announced the selection of E. W. Davis for School Superintendent, which was received with a tremendous burst of enthusiasm that completely drowned the hiss of the serpents that had wriggled their way into the convention hall. Mrs. Martin herself, immediately after the result of the ballot had been announced that proclaimed her defeat, left the hall surrounded by a bevy of female sympathizers vowing vengeance on the heads of the devoted delegates who had thwarted her ambition for a third term and declaring that she would "run independent, any how."

All the rest of the defeated candidates for a nomination took their disappointment good naturedly and more than one of these was seen to slap his successful opponent on the back, then grasp his hand and putting all thought of self aside assure him that he would have his hearty support, thus proclaiming that they were sincere Republicans. On the contrary Mrs. Martin was petulant and sore-headed and the fair sex that surrounded her exhibited their disappointment by exclaiming "those mean things!"

The convention was called to order by Hon. Albert G. Burnett, Chairman of the County Central Committee, who delivered a short, but eloquent address to the delegates. He then announced that it was in order to select a temporary chairman of the convention.

W. S. Staley of Kenwood, Los Guiljos Valley, was nominated and selected without opposition. After a few appropriate remarks by Chairman Staley and the selection of F. B. Corns of Santa Rosa as Secretary and W. H. Dobyns and L. J. Winans as assistants the convention got down to business.

The following committees were appointed by the chairman:

Order of Business—M. S. Hall, Chairman; D. E. McKinlay, C. Perkins, G. B. Baer, E. Light, A. Brown, J. H. Jacobson.

Credentials—F. Breitenbach, Chairman; A. B. Lemmon, D. Pugh, G. Graham, J. R. Rose, A. W. Garrett, H. H. McKoon.

Platform and Resolutions—C. S. Farquar, Chairman; F. H. Denman, H. Jones, C. H. Pond, W. B. Haskill, R. L. Thompson, Wm. Mills.

L. A. Norton was chosen sergeant-at-arms.

The convention then adjourned until 1:30 p.m.

Upon the reassembling of the convention in the afternoon the delegates and spectators were entertained by a few choice selections by the Soloyome Band. While the band was playing a committee of Healdsburg ladies fluttered here and there among the delegates and presented each with a boutonniere.

The convention was then called to order by the chairman and the report of the committee on credentials was then read and adopted.

The delegates from Sonoma Township were as follows:

Sonoma—F. Breitenbach, J. M. Cheney, G. S. Harris, (J. M. Cheney, proxy.)

Glen Ellen—W. S. Staley, C. H. Weise, J. E. Sutch.

Sau Luis—Sam Agnew and C. C. Champlin.

Agua Caliente—Hugh Maxwell and J. B. Morris.

After the report of the committee on platform had been read and adopted, nominations were declared in order.

Sam I. Allen of Santa Rosa was nominated for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector by acclamation.

Somers B. Fulton of Santa Rosa was nominated by R. L. Thompson for the office of County Clerk, and was elected by acclamation.

For District Attorney Lyman Green of Petaluma was nominated by Charles Kirsch, P. McCaughey of Bodega by A. B. Lemmon.

Mr. McCaughey received 59 votes and Mr. Green 68.

D. E. McKinlay nominated A. J. Atchinson of Petaluma for Auditor and Recorder. Elected by acclamation.

Wm. Haskill nominated M. D. Hopkins of Petaluma for Treasurer. C. H. Pond nominated A. S. Luge of Healdsburg. G. W. Knapp nominated Allen Bryant of Santa Rosa. C. O. Webber nominated E. F. Woodward of Santa Rosa.

The ballot resulted as follows: First ballot—Hopkins, 39; Luce, 26; Bryant, 3; Woodward 59. Second ballot—Hopkins, 37; Luce, 24; Woodward, 66. Woodward declared elected.

The following were proposed for nomination for Assessor: T. C. Putnam of Vallejo by W. A. Mills, M. V. Vanderhoff of Santa Rosa by A. B. Lemmon, John Faught of Russian River by John Bailhache.

First ballot—Putnam 32, Vanderhoff 53, Faught 16. Second ballot—Putnam 57, Vanderhoff 62, Faught 8. Third ballot—Putnam 51, Vanderhoff 70, Faught 6.

The nomination of Vanderhoff was made unanimous.

For School Superintendent E. W. Davis was nominated by John Bailhache, Mrs. Martin by C. W. Staley and Prof. Burr by A. Garrett. The balloting was as follows:

1st. 2d. 3d. 4th.
Davis..... 56 58 58 60
Martin..... 49 49 49 58
Burr..... 23 22 15 15

Mr. Davis was declared elected and the madams pranced out of the hall in high dudgeon.

For Surveyor L. E. Ricksecker received 82 votes and Newton V. Smythe 44. The former was declared elected.

For Coroner T. G. Young of Healdsburg received 103 votes and Andrew J. Blaney received 24. Young was unanimously elected.

The body then resolved itself into a Senatorial convention.

For State Senator the name of J. C. Holloway was placed in nomination by G. B. Baer, J. W. Ragsdale of Santa Rosa by R. L. Thompson, Sam Cassidy of Petaluma by H. J. Schwobeda and J. L. Dinwiddie of Petaluma by Wm. Haskill.

The name of J. W. Ragsdale was withdrawn.

The ballot resulted as follows: Holloway, 84, Cassidy 20, Dinwiddie 23.

The nomination of Holloway was made unanimous.

The convention then resolved itself into two assembly district conventions to select two Assemblymen.

The delegates of the Seventeenth Assembly district convention nominated W. S. Staley of Glen Ellen, and the nomination was declared unanimous.

The delegates of the Sixteenth Assembly district convention selected Wm. Haskill chairman and Irving Ranard secretary. W. T. Price of Forestville was unanimously nominated.

The chairman of the county committee was authorized to appoint an auditing committee of five to fill all vacancies.

The convention then resolved itself into Supervisory district conventions.

Edward Gray was nominated Supervisor for the fourth (Healdsburg) district.

E. W. Hayden of Sebastopol was nominated Supervisor for the second (Petaluma) district.

The convention then resolved itself into township conventions to nominate township officers.

O. T. Baldwin and Murray Whallon were nominated justice of the peace of Santa Rosa township, and J. H. Boswell and M. W. Bostwick constables.

Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, but none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.

Hood's Is Wonderful

"At harvesting time I took a severe cold which settled in my limbs, and in a short time developed into Rheumatism. After spending a good sum of money for different remedies and suffering all winter, I became so crippled that I had to walk with the aid of crutches. By the kind advice of a friend I was prevailed upon to buy six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took the medicine and it has fully restored me to health and I think it saved my life. I will cheerfully answer all who may wish to correspond about my affliction or statement." A. W. Cooley, Clifford, N. Dakota.

The Union Hotel dining rooms since the recent change of proprietorship, have undergone a change for the better. Under the supervision of Mrs. S. E. Jones the tables are all that could be desired by the most fastidious epicure.
There will be a bicycle race on Sunday, September 2nd, between Frank Gilbert and S. Schocken for the sum of $5. The race will be run from Sonoma to Glen Ellen. The former will go on a bicycle and the latter on the train.
Reports from Benicia state that Joe Ryan, the young man who was recently so severely injured internally in this place by a horse falling upon him, is slowly improving. He has now so far recovered as to be able to sit up a few hours every day. This will be good news to the hosts of friends of the young man in this place.
If you want to prosper your own house and stop paying rent. We offer a modern built two-story seven-room residence on one of the principal streets of Sonoma. Lot 50x150. Will be sold for $1,200 on the following terms: Five hundred dollars down and balance in three years at 7 per cent. The house cost $1,800. For further particulars apply at this office.
We have on exhibition in this office several clusters of Japan plums which were grown on the O. B. Shaw place a short distance east of town. The plums of which there are from eight to ten to the cluster average seven inches laterally and eight inches longitudinally. This is a fair sample of the fruit that is being shipped this season from Sonoma and vicinity to Eastern fruit markets.
Two hundred thousand basalt blocks have been shipped from Schocken's quarries in this place to San Francisco the past month over the San Francisco and North Pacific Railway. Several hundred thousand more are lying alongside the railway at this place, awaiting shipment to the same city. Mr. Schocken has one contract alone that calls for 400,000 paving blocks.
The four-months-old infant of Wm. and the late Margaret Gilbert (nee Carriger) died in San Francisco on Friday of last week. The remains were brought to Sonoma on Sunday and interred beside those of the mother in Mountain Cemetery. The bereaved husband and father has been extremely unfortunate the past two years. In that time he has lost his wife, two infant children and a brother.
Last Sunday afternoon between three and four o'clock a large tank house adjoining the residence of Robert Howe was discovered to be on fire. An alarm was given and Mr. Howe, aided by John Wilson, F. W. Russell, Charles Cutter and others who happened to be in the vicinity at the time succeeded in extinguishing the fire with difficulty. Had the fire in the tank house got beyond control the beautiful and costly residence would surely have went up in flames. It was a very close call. The origin of the fire is unknown.

SAD DEATH.

Mrs. Emma Saunders Maslin Expires in a Far-off Foreign Country.

News of the death of Mrs. Emma Saunders Maslin, which occurred in San Salvador, Republic of Salvador, Central America, on Friday night of last week, reached her old Sonoma Valley home last Saturday evening by cablegram.
Mrs. Maslin left for her new home in Central America last June, the very picture of health, to join her husband to whom she had been married the month previous at her home near Sonoma.
After a brief honeymoon in San Francisco the young couple returned to the home of Col. and Mrs. W. K. Rogers, the parents of the bride, and a few days thereafter Mr. Maslin, who has a large coffee plantation in San Salvador, left for that country. Mrs. Maslin remained with her parents owing to a revolution which had broken out in the Republic, as it was not thought safe to accompany her husband to a foreign country which was engaged in a civil war.
Peace having been declared shortly after Mr. Maslin's return to his Central American home he sent for his bride, who joined him early in July.
Shortly after Mrs. Maslin's arrival she was stricken down with one of those deadly fevers so common in Central American towns, to which she succumbed after a brief illness.
Mrs. Maslin spent her early childhood and young womanhood days in Sonoma Valley and had endeared herself to every one with whom she had been thrown in contact and the announcement of her unexpected death cast a gloom over the entire community.
Mrs. Maslin was born in Sacramento and was 33 years of age.

All Should Work Together.

General Passenger Agent Ryan of the San Francisco and North Pacific Railway visited Sonoma last Tuesday. Mr. Ryan has been on a tour of inspection on the different lines of his railway throughout Sonoma and Mendocino counties and he says the reason those counties do not receive their share of the many settlers who come to this coast annually is because their residents will not work together in showing the advantages of their respective districts. He truthfully says: "You must stop running down your neighbor's place in the desire to sell your own, and cease urging weak points in that locality to acquire a residence in this one. You must depend upon the strong points of your own district and urge them upon a homeseeker, and if you fail to convince him, tell him of the advantages of your neighboring district. When all unite in an endeavor to locate new settlers the result will be apparent."
The San Francisco and North Pacific Railway people are doing all they can for the section through which their road passes with the aid of large sums of money which is being used for the purpose of advertising the many wonderful resources of this county. This will certainly attract the attention of desirable settlers in the near future. Sonoma county and especially Sonoma Valley has lain dormant too long just for the want of such men as are now at the head of the San Francisco and North Pacific Railway.

Heavy Fruit Shipments East.

The Hunt Packing Company of Santa Rosa, through its manager B. F. Campbell, has shipped over sixteen carloads of Sonoma Valley fruit to Chicago and other Eastern cities so far this month. Porter Bros., through their agent, J. F. Farnsworth, has also shipped to Chicago a large number of carloads of various kinds of fruit.

Distinguished Visitors.

Gov. Markham and Warden Hale of San Quentin passed through town last Monday on their way to visit the Napa Insane Asylum. On Tuesday they arrived in town from Napa and took the afternoon Donahue train for San Francisco.

The success of Miss Annie M. Beam of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I know of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.

The Turners' Entertainment and Ball.

The entertainment and ball given at Union Hall last Wednesday evening by the Sonoma Turn Verein was largely attended. The following programme was excellently carried out and entertained the audience for two hours:

Overture, Hahn's Band; introductory remarks, Hon. F. T. Duh-ring; vocal solo, Miss Natalie Haraszthy; dumb-bell exercises, juvenile class, S. T. V.; recitation, Miss Madge Sullivan; parallel bar exercises, members of S. T. V.; vocal solo, Miss Pauline Bates; piano solo, Miss Nellie Stevenot; scientific points in self defense, John B. Skinner and Prof. Bradstreet of Boston; vocal solo, Miss Claire Hope; motto song, James B. Small.

The address of Hon. F. T. Duh-ring was both interesting and instructive and won for him loud applause.

The boxing bout between Mr. John B. Skinner and Prof. Bradstreet was greatly enjoyed by all present, especially the ladies, to whom an exhibition of the manly art was something new and novel. The vocal solos by Misses Claire Hope, Pauline Bates and Natalie Haraszthy were loudly encored and the motto song by James B. Small brought down the house and earned for him three recalls.

The recitation by Miss Madge Sullivan showed thorough cultivation which with a graceful stage presence bespeaks for the young lady talent as an elocutionist.

The piano solo by Miss Nellie Stevenot was well received and the young lady responded to an encore.

The dumb-bell exercises by the juvenile class of the Turners also brought forth rounds of applause.

At 10:30 o'clock the floor was cleared for dancing in which about one hundred couple participated. Robt. Pasch acted as floor manager and it is needless to add gave general satisfaction.

The committee of arrangements, Messrs. A. F. Pauli, Robt. Pasch, Carl Hadernan, Geo. Spanning and James B. Small, deserve praise for the able manner in which they managed the affair, which was both socially and financially a success.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Thos. J. Geary was renominated for Congress from this district at the San Francisco convention last Thursday. His opponent was H. C. Geisford of Napa, who received 29 votes to Geary's 69.

There is considerable kicking in Petaluma among disappointed Republican office seekers who got left at the late Healdsburg convention. As that town is represented on the ticket by two of its citizens the Republicans over that way ought to be satisfied.

The Santa Rosa Republican says that no place in Sonoma county claims Prof. Abshire, the Democratic nominee for School Superintendent. For the benefit of our esteemed contemporary we will state that Mr. Abshire is a resident of Sonoma, where he has taught school for over two years and where he is highly esteemed as a gentleman and a teacher.

Was this an ill omen?—At the recent Healdsburg convention while Mrs. Martin was taking her dinner at the Sotoyome House a nervous waiter let two large plates of soup slip out of his hand. The plates fell to the floor with a crash and the soup was spilled promiscuously over the floor right alongside the lady candidate. This was at the noon hour. Two hours later she also got souped in the convention, being beat for a third term by Ed. Davis. It was a singular coincidence to say the least.

J. C. Holloway of Cloverdale, the Republican nominee for State Senator for the Tenth District, announces himself in these columns this week. Mr. Holloway is a very popular man in the northern part of the county, where he is best known and will poll a heavy vote up that way. He numbers among his friends Democrats as well as Republicans and is as strong a man as the Republicans could have put up for the office. Should the people of Sonoma county select Mr. Holloway to represent them in the State Senate he will reflect credit not only on himself but the people whom he will represent.

Mrs. F. McG. Martin was in Petaluma last Wednesday circulating a petition among the voters of that city nominating her as an independent candidate for Superintendent of Schools. The petition will be circulated throughout the county and when three per cent of the vote cast at the last election will have been obtained the madam will commence an active canvass for the office. Of course she has no idea of getting elected, but if she can succeed in defeating her Republican opponent who beat her in a fair contest for the nomination at the Healdsburg convention she will be satisfied. The madam will shortly visit Sonoma for the purpose of securing signatures to her petition and we anticipate a wild scramble among voters to keep out of her way.

Jules Berges rode over to Petaluma on his bicycle last Wednesday. He covered the sixteen miles in one hour and ten minutes.

A large number of school children from Sonoma, Schellville and Glen Ellen attended the Petaluma Fair in a body last Wednesday.

Mr. E. Gilbert of San Francisco has been in town the past week looking after his property interests. He will return to the metropolis to-morrow afternoon.

Charles A. Wetmore's famous vineyard near Livermore is being foreclosed under a mortgage for $17,000 which is held by the San Francisco Theological Seminary.

Messrs. Henry Bates, Frank Weems and Claude Johnson, accompanied by Misses Zoe Clark, Stella Johnson and Clara Cheney attended the Petaluma Fair yesterday.

Miss Ora Lawrence left Sonoma last Saturday for San Jose where she will remain the guest of her cousin Mrs. Watkins. About September 1st she will resume her studies at the Normal School.

Miss Emily Kurtz of Glen Ellen had a narrow escape from being run over by a railway train at Ignacio last Wednesday. She attempted to alight from the cars while they were in motion. She was thrown off her feet and fell to the platform, the wheels of the moving train passing within a few inches of her prostrate form.

There should be at least one dark dress of thin material in every woman's wardrobe, especially if she is compelled to remain in the city. Very stylish frocks of this kind can be made of black dotted Swiss.

The lightest shade of lavender blue is a new color. It is called bluet, the French name of the German cornflower and is the palest tint of that favorite flower, bunches of which with bluet chiffon trim black or unbleached straw hats.

Experiments have been made by Dr. Buchner in submitting working bees to a regimen of alcoholized honey. The effect is astonishing. They revolt against their queen and give themselves over to idleness, brigandage and pillage until they are past out by their fellows.

Abraham Lincoln undoubtedly was the tallest President; he was six feet four inches in height. The shortest was probably Benjamin Harrison, although Van Buren and John Adams were very short men. The oldest President was William Henry Harrison, who was sixty-eight years and one month old when inaugurated; the youngest was Grant, who was not quite forty-seven years old.

Thos. Monahan returned to the city last Wednesday.

Thundercloud gray is a new tint and, when of crepon, its billowy undulations with every movement of the wearer seem as if lightning might flash out at any minute.

Rice muffins for an August breakfast—Beat two eggs, add a cup of boiled rice, three tablespoons of flour, butter the size of an egg, and a pinch of salt, and bake in muffin rings.

With the coming of cool autumn days white will still be worn. The serge and duck tailor gowns being so popular that they will not be relegated to the closet till dreary skies are seen over us.

Fancy waists increase in importance and variety with the changing season. By their aid an ingenious girl with two or three dresses of modish fabric contrives at a number of different costumes.

Ingalls, Mich., school trustees have issued specifications for next year's school ma'am as follows: She must be passably good looking, hold a second grade certificate, have plenty of muscle and wear a No. 3 shoe.

A pretty evening ornament for the hair of a brunette consists of a narrow band of silver, which almost encircles the head, ornamented with two little silver wings perched up erectly a little to either side of the parting in front.

Powdered starch will take the stains out of linen if applied immediately. Tea stains may be removed from a tablecloth by immersing it in a strong solution of sugar for a few minutes and then rinsing it in soft water.

It is said that there is no better remedy for thin hair than vaseline. Rub it on the scalp gently and thoroughly several times a week, being careful to get as little of it on the hair as possible and every day massage the scalp with the tips of the fingers. It takes but a few moments and is far better than brushing.

The San Francisco & North Pacific Railway has determined to make the streams along its line the most popular resorts for anglers in the vicinity of San Francisco. Arrangements have been made for depositing 500,000 trout in the streams, 250,000 of which will be planted in the Big Sulphur and Pieta creeks. The balance will be placed in some stream near Ukiah. The entire cost will be defrayed by the San Francisco & North Pacific Railway.

To make a savory dish take three and a half pounds of the nicest part of a leg of veal, lean and fat, chopped fine with a slice of salt pork. Mix with this six soda crackers rolled fine, two beaten eggs, butter the size of an egg, a teaspoonful of pepper, one nutmeg and a little minced parsley. Work together in the form of a loaf of bread, put bits of butter all over it, dust with cracker crumbs, place in a dripping pan, pour in a little water and bake from two to three hours, basting often.

Of all the ills that befall a community their is nothing so abominable as the scandal-monger, truthfully remarks the Dixon Tribune. The town that is affected with one or more of these olive branches of the devil has our sympathy. There is a class of people whose delight is to breed unhappiness, and these self-same angels that look upon all things with an evil eye ought to be sentenced to a life of misery, and be compelled to drain the wretched cup to the dregs, and ever sup one of sorrow and bitterness. As a rule these dregs of the earth and raff are prominent in social circles. They always warm themselves in exalted places where they can weave the baton, and every fool woman will put on an exclamation-point air, draw her holy skirts closer and proceed to advertise the new scandal with a rapidity that would make the clerk of the lightning bureau ashamed of himself. The man or woman who plays football with the character of a neighbor is a dangerous citizen, far more dangerous than a murderer, a drunkard or thief. Decent people are insecure when within reach of a tattler. Respectable people have no means of defense from the cesspools of tale-bearers. Many an innocent person has been besmeared with the contaminating tongue of some foul-mouthed angel and dabbled in the mire and ruined before being aware of it. A common sewer is too good for such character-smirchers.

silence settled on the old farmhouse, and Gilbert actually fell into a tight doze, from which Mrs. Westford's soft call aroused him. Half asleep, he made his way to the trap-door and was helped up. Ernestine, in cloak and hat, stood waiting.

"Mother thinks it best that you should be back in safety before day-break," she said simply. "I can drive you over very soon."

"I hate to let thee go, dear," her mother said anxiously. "It is only for an hour, mother," reassured the girl, "and we can hardly trust Harry. He is only a boy and so impetuous and bitter."

Mrs. Westford sighed. "It seems to be a duty—and surely our Father will not let thee suffer for doing thy duty. Well, go. My prayers shall go with thee. But be careful, child."

The light wagon and bay pony stood at the door. The prisoner was helped into the back seat, and Ernestine sprang in before. The big watchdog followed at her call and curled up under her seat, and Gilbert felt that however kindly these women might feel they were not disposed to run any useless risks.

"Goodby, mother. Don't fret," was Ernestine's parting word, and Mrs. Westford's earnest "May God protect thee," showed her uneasiness. Yet she added a kindly word to the prisoner: "And may he bring out the truth! I hope we shall see thee free before all the world right speedily."

Then they drove away in the darkness. Ernestine spoke little. Her heart beat too fast. She half apologized for taking the dog.

"The roads would be so lonely, coming back," an apology which he readily accepted. Could he resent her prudence when she had given him his life! But he could not help being intensely thankful that the dog had been asleep in the barn when he approached.

Their trip was about half done when lanterns gleamed ahead and wheels and voices were heard approaching. "The mob!" was his first thought, and Ernestine whispered hurriedly, "Down under your seat till they pass!" then with a sudden joyful change in tone and manner: "Oh, it is the sheriff! Thank heaven!"

The sheriff it was, looking anxiously for his charge, but with little hope of ever seeing him again alive. Ernestine turned quickly.

"Your wrists, please," and the manacles fell off. "There! You need not tell that part unless you wish. It was only—but you understand. Mother had a right to be cautious, you know."

And then the sheriff was hailing them and as much surprised as delighted to find the prisoner in such hands. The transfer was soon made, and with a kindly word of farewell Ernestine hastened back to her anxious mother.

At the new trial Gilbert Hazelton had no difficulty in proving his own identity and was triumphantly acquitted. Of all the warm handclaps and congratulations he received none gave him more pleasure than those of Mrs. Westford and her daughter.

"You must come and see us," Ernestine said, blushing. "I know we were not overpolite to you, mother and I, but come again, and you will find that we can be civil."

And he did come—not once, but many times—and at last carried sweet Ernestine away as his bride.—Ada E. Ferris in Overland Monthly.

English Lawyers' Smart Speeches.

Of wit or humor Scarlett had little or none. He was not the man to invent on the spur of the moment a telling nickname for his client, as Erskine did for a client named Bolt, whose character having been traced by the other side, Erskine confidently assured the jury that he was known among his neighbors as "Bolt Upright." Nor could Scarlett tickle the fancy of judge and jury by such a flash of wit as that with which he opened a certain coach accident case.

"Gentlemen of the jury, my client is a respectable Liverpool merchant, and the defendant, Mr. Wilson, keeps The Swan With Two Necks in Lad Lane, a sign seemingly emblematic of the number of necks people ought to possess who travel by his coaches." Nor would it have occurred to Scarlett to tell a jury that the plaintiff, the owner of a wild beast show, claiming damages for the loss of a trunk, "ought to have followed the example of his own sagacious elephant and traveled with his trunk before him."—Temple Bar.

An Optical Illusion.

An interesting optical experiment may be made with the ordinary incandescent light. Gaze steadily at the light for a few seconds, then suddenly extinguish it—the experiment is best performed in a very dark room. In about half a minute you will see the perfect image of the light, with the two fine strands of wire plainly visible. It will be red at first. In a few minutes it will turn purple, and then a bright blue. Later it will apparently move to the right. As you turn your gaze it will continue moving to the right. If you keep your gaze fixed, it will come back. It is surprising how long the illusion will last. It will be seen for fully five minutes, perhaps longer, and if you turn on the light and look away from it you will see the old image for several minutes, though more faintly than in the darkness.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

FOR MEN ONLY!

Read what the Rev. Dr. J. K. McLean, Pastor of the First Congregational Church, Oakland, says of it: Hazel Creek, April 14, '94. "I am more than pleased with it—delighted. The place seems to me to embody all available points for a camp—dry, firm soil, good water, visible from every part of the ground. The view of the Crags also is fine. The general environment is of the best. It is oval-shaped amphitheater, three miles long by one-fourth to 3/4 of a mile wide, with receding walls two to three thousand feet in height, with lines and shades of beauty at every reach. I doubt if a better place can be found in all Northern California."
